

IMPARD Newsletter

Vol. XXIV July-September, 2017 No. 2

From the Desk of VC & DG

Shri Pramod Jain, IAS

I have pleasure in presenting the latest edition of IMPARD newsletter.

While we are trying to have more training courses with higher participation across Departments, we are also covering new and more relevant areas such as Swach Bharat Mission, Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojna, Smart Cities, Disaster Management and Hospital safety. Trainings are also being decentralised.

We have also proudly hosted Honourable Deputy Chief Minister, Honourable Rural Development Minister and Honourable Health Minister who graced the inaugurals of four Training Courses. Hon'ble Chief Justice and 4 Hon'ble Judges of J&K High Court also visited our Srinagar Campus.

New practices in the management of courses are receiving focused attention as also Research, Policy Papers and Infrastructure Development. Faculty development, new partnerships and engagement with other training institutions are also now getting a fillip.

Happy reading!

Important Training Events

Secretariat Assistants Training

The Institute has been providing long duration training to lower and upper division functionaries/clerks regularly. The main objectives of this training are: i) to familiarize the participants with the provisions of J&K Manual of Secretariat Procedure; Civil Services Regulations; Financial Code; and Classification, Conduct and Appeal Rule; ii) to inculcate basic values, attitudes and spirit of team work among the trainees; iii) to acquaint the trainees with basic computer skills of e-Governance; iv) to develop positive, motivated, and result oriented attitudes among the trainees; and v) to familiarize the participants with brief history, geographical features, culture, and the Constitution of J&K State.

Two training courses, one each for Junior and Senior Assistants, titled "Secretariat Assistants Training Course for Sr. Assistants" and "Foundation Course for Junior Assistants" were started on August 10, 2017. Both these courses are under way at present at Institute's Main Campus, Srinagar under the coordinatorship of Ms. Nighat Amin, Research Officer. Two such programmes are under way at Jammu since August 10, 2017 under the coordinatorship of Dr. Jyoti Sadhu, Research Officer.

Induction Training

The Institute has always given due importance to efficiency development and capacity building of front-line government functionaries. The Institute organised a two-week training course at Leh, (August 01-14, 2017) under the coordinatorship of Dr. S. K. Islam, Associate Professor.

Hospital Safety

Disasters bring to the fore vulnerabilities of people, structures, and systems and cause large scale damage. Hospitals are no exception to this rule. Operational resilience of hospitals is as significant as their structural resilience so that the impact of disasters on hospitals could be reduced. In order to identify disaster vulnerabilities of hospitals a three days' training course on "Hospital Safety" was organised by Dr. G. M. Dar, Associate Professor (August 16-18, 2017) at Srinagar.

Empowerment of Women: Issues and Concerns

In order to familiarize the participants with the concept of women empowerment and allied issues relating to women development the Institute organised a three days' Training Course on "Empowerment of Women : Issues and Concerns" at Jammu (September 06-08, 2017). Dr. Sunita Zalpuri, Professor, coordinated the Course.
