About J&K IMPA & RD

J&K Institute of Management, Public Administration and Rural Development is a Premier Training Institute in UT of Jammu and Kashmir, comprising of Administrative Training Institute (ATI) and State Institute of Rural Development (SIRD). It has been playing a leading role in capacity building activities through its programmes in several significant areas of Good Governance and Public Relevance like e-Governance, Urban and Rural Development, Transparency and Social Accountability, Sanitation, Watershed Management, Grassroots Governance, Disaster Management, GFR - 2017 and others. The Institute has been working with DoPT, GoI, MoRD and MoPR, GoI, Government Departments and a number of other prestigious organizations at the national and state level in carrying out capacity building programme sand projects.

Our continuous engagement in conducting Foundation & Induction Training Programmes for the Probationers of Indian Administrative Service (IAS) and Jammu and Kashmir Administrative Service (JKAS) and other gazetted and non gazetted services of J&K has earned this Institute a significant place in the overall scheme of Human Resource Development in the Government Sector. Besides, we also play a leading role in capacity building of elected representatives of both Urban Local Bodies and PRIs.

About the Programme

In order to promote greater cooperation and facilitate an environment of sharing experiences and resources, J&K IMPARD has started a process of collaborating with Universities and Colleges though its Internship programme. Engagement with academic institutions will provide students and fresh graduates internship opportunities to assist in research and fieldwork, thus creating the lab-to-land transfer of innovative solutions. This is mutually beneficial to students in gaining exposure to the functioning of government and also to the Institute as fresh young minds will assist in addressing critical challenges being faced by different departments. Every intern will work under a faculty member to carry out specific research during internship period.
